One of Alfonso biggest accomplishments was being a father. His children, Juana, Francisco, Irma, and Aricela called their dad a wonderful, hard working, kind, friendly and even as adults, still see him this way. He was always there for them through their ups and downs, and taught them to enjoy every moment life has to offer. To have a drive of being hard workers, accomplishing our goals/dreams.

Just like he dealt with all experiences in life, Alfonso managed his illness with strength and grace, and spent the last couple of weeks with his loved ones as much as possible. On his final day, he was surrounded by his children, his wife, his grandson, his son-in-law and daughter-in-law, his only surviving extended family member, he adored them more than anything else in the world.
