

Ida Mae Whitaker

November 15, 1933 - November 2, 2021

Ida Mae Peavler Whitaker, age, 87, passed away peacefully on November 2, 2021, at her home in Lehigh Acres, Florida. She was born to the late Leslie Otto Peavler and Vera Winford Peavler on November 15, 1933 in London, Kentucky. Raised in Kentucky, Ohio and Texas, she settled in Ohio and married, raising four children there. She spent her working years as a hairdresser, owning her own beauty shop at one time. She was mostly known for the deep love she had for her children and grandchildren, often stating that she had the most beautiful children and grandchildren in the world. She made sure that all her children were raised to love and serve the Lord as faithfully as she did. In retirement, she and her husband Ed Whitaker moved to Burnside, Kentucky, where they spent many happy years together. Her family and friends have many wonderful memories of time spent on Lake Cumberland. In their twilight years, they settled in Lehigh Acres, Florida. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Edwin Whitaker, her stepmother Lucy Peavler and the two sons, Cameron Scott and Roy Scott Jr. and her sister Esta Hayden. She is survived by her children Patricia (Gerald) Richardson, Rhonda (Mitch) Bradshaw, Christy (Pat) Chandler, Victor (Sheila) Scott, Rocky (Mike) Walker, Jamie Whitaker, Linda Disher and sister Dixie Mae West. She is also survived by a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild and many nieces and nephews. Memorial services will be held on November 30, 2021 at Lee Blvd. Baptist Church at 10:00 AM. Committal service and burial will be held at Sarasota National Cemetery in Sarasota, Florida following the memorial service at 2:30 PM.
