

Juan Manuel Rivas Covarrubias

March 4, 1959 - September 13, 2020

When asked to describe him, many beautiful words were shared by his family. Manny was an amazing person, a great husband, father, uncle, brother, grandfather, and friend. He was Gloria's faithful husband who stood by her side through thick and thin. He was a family man, who taught the men in the family what it meant to be a man. He did everything in his power to take care of his family. He was caring, honest, smart, humble, and courageous; the best handyman who was always willing and ready to help anyone in need. He would say things like, "Jale Chicano" after fixing anything. He was the type of person that made everyone laugh; he was the biggest jokester. He was playful and goofy with his grandchildren. If you would grab his butt he would yell, "Pidelo Wayyy". He loved talking with us and telling us stories. We enjoyed all the conversations we had with him. He was a bear hugger, a protector, always had a big smile on his face and always had words to make you feel better. He was so friendly; he would meet someone today and talk to them like he knew them forever. During meals, if you had the pleasure of sitting next to him at the dinner table, he would ask if you wanted pique (hot sauce). His favorites were Mountain Dew, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches with banana slices, coffee, and anything chocolate. He would have jalapenos with almost every meal. He loved receiving gifts on holidays; no matter how small the gift was, it was the greatest gift to him. He was understanding and always there to listen when needed a shoulder to cry on. We all have many wonderful and funny memories of him. We were blessed with the years that God allowed him to live. We will never find someone like him. He was the greatest man who fathered and grandfathered children who were not his by blood. Even though you are not here with us, You will always be in our hearts. We love you so much, our superhero and angel, Juan Manuel Rivas.
