“ The memories I have for Momma Kelly are endless, hilarious and most of all gracious. She always did everything she could for everyone. She was always there for anyone to talk to, to validate your feeling and help find a solution to anyone's problem. I will never forget how she helped me as a crazy teenager and again when my son fell critically ill, she was there for both of the birth's of my children, my wedding, birthday's and most milestone's of my life. She was the best cheerleader anyone can have and is watching over her family this I know. When she talked about Craig, she always light up like a Christmas tree, he was her savior, her soul mate and the love of her life. Her love for her daughters was incredible and I am proud that sometimes she thought of me as one too. Forever indebted for the love this woman showed me.
