

Schuster Daniel

July 1, 1992 - October 26, 2020

Schuster Daniel, 28, of Lehigh Acres, died October 26, 2020 after a tough battle with complications due to Duchenne's Muscular Dystrophy. Schuster was born July 1, 1992 in Ft. Myers, he was the son of Jean Baptist and Marie Daniel. Schuster graduated from Riverdale High School in 2010. Schuster was a member of the First Baptist Church of Alva where he was known as a prayer warrior, always putting other peoples needs ahead of his own. Schuster had a passion for sports. He was an avid fan of the Baltimore Ravens, Detroit Pistons, Miami Hurricanes and San Francisco Giants. He loved collecting sneakers, discussing politics, having friendly debates, sharing ideas and talking about social issues. Even though death has come too soon all life leaves an impact. Though he faced a myriad of challenges, Schuster always found a way to be hopeful and keep his fun and sarcastic sense of humor. Schuster was also very wise and despite any tough circumstances he remained stoic, and always kept a positive attitude. Schuster was predeceased by his brothers, Breickner and Oddle Daniel . He is survived by his parents Jean and Marie, his brothers Kalz and Lenz, and his sisters Jane and Samantha. In lieu of flowers, Schuster's family asks that guests donate to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. We will gather in support of the family on Thursday November 5, 2020. The family will assemble for a private time from 9:00 to 10:00 and the public is invited to visit with the family from 10:00 to 11:00, with a service that will begin at 11:00. These services will take place at Gendron Funeral Home at 2701 Lee Blvd. in Lehigh Acres FL.
