

Abraham M Luna

January 16, 2005 - June 22, 2017

Abraham M Luna, Born January 16, 2005, in Bradenton, FL. He was 12 years old when he lost his precious life. He went to Palmasola Elementary School and also attended Poppy Patch Day Care.

His family and friends called him A.B., he was a happy kid always smiling and grateful for everything. He loved playing soccer with his beloved team, Manasota Lions in Palmetto, which he played for 5 years. He was active and if not practicing for a game, he was running with his Uncle Chris. They ran his first 5k at Gasparella. He loved his family, his mom Selene, his big brother, Victor, his sister, Johanna and little brother Jordan and his step-dad, Rey. He always showed his love and gratitude to everyone. He never went to bed without saying good night and I Love You. He loved to say, "Family First" and always reminded us of that. He has left a hole in our hearts, but we have faith that we will be together one day.

Abraham is preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Martina Luna and his oldest brother, Juan Luna Jr. Abraham's surviving family; Mother, Selene Remedios; Father, Juan Luna; Brothers, Victor Luna, Jordan Remedios; Sister, Johanna Luna; Step-Father, Rey Enriquez; Paternal Grandfather, Pedro Luna; Maternal Grandfather, Jose Remedios; Grandmother Marina Perez; Auntie Sandy Bigham and Uncle Chris Bigham; Aunties Adriana, Myrna, Carolina; 19 cousins including his soccer buddy, Karla Remedios. He will forever be missed and now is playing soccer with the best in heaven. His life was short, but he gave us the best 12 years with his beautiful smile and his perfect teeth will still be with us. RIP our sweet A.B.

Visitation will be July 1, 2017 at 10:00am at Bible Baptist Church, 2113 57th Street E, Bradenton, FL and service following at 11:00am.

“ Ay chaparrito todos te vamos a extrañar mucho mucho pero con el recuerdo de la garra que mostrabas en cada partido donde no dejabas ni un balon suelto donde entregabas hasta la ultima gota de sudor por tu equipo trataremos de salir adelante y con el tiempo sonreir de nuevo asi como tu lo hacias ”
