

Adam "POP" Sarwinski

December 20, 2012

Adam E. Sarwinski, Jr., age 84, passed away December 20, 2012 in Naples, FL. Adam was born on July 26, 1928 in Nanticoke, PA and was the beloved son of the late Adam, Sr and Helen Sarwinski and brother to the late Therese Michalek, who all preceded him. Adam retired from the United States Navy, serving proudly for 20 years. Adam later worked at Red Rock Commissary in Benton, PA and Tobyhanna Army Depot in Tobyhanna, PA. His plans were to settle in Naples, Florida and walk the beach and watch the sunsets at Wiggins Pass State Park with his wife Marie. Adam is survived by his wife of 56 years, Marie Rominski- Sarwinski; daughters Sandra Sarwinski - Naples, FL. and Donna Snider (Scott Snider)-Dallas, PA; his grandchildren Adam Snider- Arlington, VA; Cassandra (Chris Edelman) Edelman-Clearwater, FL; and Ali Snider-Dallas, PA. Adam is also survived by several sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws and many dear nieces and nephews. And many many friends that knew him as "Pop". He will be missed by all and in our thoughts and prayers forever. A memorial mass for Adam will be held Monday, January 21, 2013, 10:00 am. St. Faustina Parish @ St. Mary's Church 1030 S Hanover St. Nanticoke, Pa. Arrangements entrusted to Garfield Funeral Care - Naples, FL. (239) 596-5288. “ I loved the way Pop always joked with me!
One of my favorite memories of him was when he surprised me and came to my swim meet!
I looked up in the crowd and he was smiling at me and holding a can of bubblegum for me!!
I will think of you every time I chew bubblegum!

I love you pop! I love u love,jordan
