“ I'm still in shock over hearing about the passing of Alan. I met Alan back in 2013 for the first time when my best friend introduced me to Dixie Roadhouse. I can remember Alan walking up to us making sure we were okay and that we didn't need anything. My first impression of Alan, very sweet, caring, loving man he had for all his patrons that walked thru the front doors. His smile, his laugh so contagious it lit up every part of Dixie Roadhouse. I never met such a great, and awesome guy. I never once saw him mad or upset, always, always smiled. I am very grateful that I had the chance to know Alan and I'm very saddened that my visit back to my old stomping grounds will be remembering a great man. This is just heartbreaking. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife, his son, and his family. The Lord has gained one amazing angel. Until we meet again, rest in peace my friend.

“ My condolences to the family. Such an enormous loss. Alan was larger than life and always found time to greet you with a huge hug and kiss. His smile was infectious and warm. Alan was the first person I met at Dixie and made me feel welcome and safe. I will always be grateful to him for getting me started in my business and he was always there if I needed anything. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. God Bless.

“ So many good memories, all wonderful and amazing. My favorite moments with Alan were at the end of a busy nite, he would talk about his son Jude and how he never knew till he came along how much love you could have for his son. The joy of having a part of him to carry his name, how he would just hold him as he slept. He would smile and shake his head and tell me he loves me, for listening to him as his heart over flowed with love for his little man. He always did his best to help everyone and when he got mad it was so short lived. His love for music, football, motorcycles, family and friends, was contagious as he loved everyone. I will miss you my friend. Thank you for 8 wonderful years. I was blessed to spent precious time with you in your final days and still you wanted all of us to smile and laugh with you. Making sure you said I love you to us all. Courageous till your last breathe, straight to the sunrise you went, your way with dignity and a smile. ”
