

Alan Tyrus Wright Jr.

September 29, 1940 - October 19, 2025

Alan Tyrus Wright, Jr.

September 29, 1940 – October 19, 2025

Alan Tyrus Wright, Jr., of Fort Myers, Florida, passed away peacefully on October 19, 2025, at the age of 85. Born in Miami on September 29, 1940, Alan spent his entire life in the Sunshine State, surrounded by the people and places he loved most.

In high school, Alan's athletic talent shined — he was the top runner in the state and ranked third in the nation in track. He also played football and earned numerous letters and awards, setting the tone for a lifetime marked by dedication and drive.

Alan went on to build a successful career as a Chief Financial Officer for several companies, where his sharp mind and strong work ethic earned the respect of colleagues and friends alike. Outside of work, he enjoyed the simple pleasures that brought him joy — football games, collecting guns, and listening to his favorite country music.

Alan's greatest pride, however, was his family. He is survived by his daughter, Kelly Wright; sons, Justin Wright and Jonathan Wright; four grandchildren, Ashley Cova, Ryan Courtney, Dillon Etherson, and Olivia Hingson; and six great-grandchildren.

Alan will be remembered for his interesting stories and his deep love for UF and cowboy movies. He will be deeply missed.