“ Frances,
I am so sorry that I did not stay in closer touch. Life is so short, I had such good memories of having worked for him and his father and I just think people are going to be around for ever. It just does not work that way. God bless you & take care.
For ever, Bill Brown

“ I really cannot express how much Mr. Hansen meant to my Grandy, Dan C. Meeks. In turn the love and friendship they built over 20 years-has trickled down to me, Grandy's granddaughter. I'm now 28 years old, married and Grandy walked me down the aisle. But every summer vacation, since I was 2-we'd visit Grammy & Grandy, on their houseboat, docked at Hansen's Marina. I cannot begin to count all the pictures of the houseboat, 'Rejoice.' Learning to swim, catch fish, watch manatees surface, see Anhingas drying their wings.. seeing alligators! My Grandy loved Mr. Hansen.. and he was so good to my Grandy. The best friend you can always count on. They would go out for the 'men's lunch,' it was something Grandy would look so forward to. My Grandy passed away Jan. 11, 2010. Mr. Hansen-I just wish I could have told you how much you meant to my Grandy.. and how much you still mean to me. Thank you. The world has lost another good man. Mrs. Hansen, thank you for sacrificing your time, with Mr. Hansen, so that he could be such a great friend to my Grandy. My mom said maybe you both are together, again..

“ Jennie, Bill, & Family,

I am very sorry for your loss. Know that your entire family will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers.

"God Called You Home"

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place.

He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering, He knew that you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace Be Thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

“ I will never forget Mr. Hansen and his gentle yet firm, loving spirit and how he willingly sacrificed to help and bless anyone in need; how he loved to teach others and pass his wisdom on to the next generation. Some of my fondest childhood memories are of the Hansen boatways...the smell of diesel, manatees floating under the docks, Thanksgiving celebrations and Easter egg hunts. I hope he knew how much he was loved and respected and what a difference he made in the lives of so many. Although he will be greatly missed, the joy comes in knowing that he is with Jesus and that we will join him soon!
