“ I think of Aleida every day and miss her very much. I miss talking and sharing time together. She was very smart and looked at life with laughter. I was blessed to have known her in just a short time. I hurt knowing she is not there to visit with. I learned a lot about true friendship and how to be optimistic, hopeful, and caring for others. The more you give, the more you receive. Laughter will keep you going. Thank you, Aleida for being my friend. I will look for you in Heaven to guide me the right way!
