

Alexander Williams Fields

March 31, 1945 - December 19, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Alexander William Fields Jr., beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, on December 19, 2024 at the age of 79.

Born on March 31, 1945 in Brooklyn, New York, to Alexander William Fields Sr. and Marie Antoinette DiGregorio, Alex, lovingly nicknamed "Billy", was a proud New Yorker through and through. He spent his life serving others, first as a dedicated mailman and later as a respected postal police sergeant. His career was a testament to his commitment to his community. But it was not just his professional life that defined him; it was his role as a family man that made him truly special. For 52 years, he shared his life and love with his cherished wife, Maria, who remained his greatest partner. Together, they raised six children, instilling in them the values of integrity, hard work, loyalty, and love.

Alex was also a proud Navy veteran. His love for history and his service in the military gave him a profound respect for the United States, a quality that carried through in every aspect of his life. He was a man who appreciated the simple things—a good book on history, a well-played football game, or a quiet evening spent listening to doo-wop music while smoking his pipe.

His children were his greatest pride, and his love for them was endless. He was also a grandfather to his twelve grandchildren, who loved him for his warmth and sense of humor.

He is survived by his loving wife, Maria, and his six children: Jason (Patricia), Stephanie (Corban), Krista, Adrienne (Philip), Marc and Robert and his twelve grandchildren: Victoria, Cedar, Alexandra, Saoirse, Aidan, Eliana, Lia, Kyra, Ronan, Theresa, Declan, and Bernadette, and two sisters, Barbara and Joann (Ralph) and many other family members and friends who were touched by his life.

A funeral mass will be held at St. John the XXIII Roman Catholic Church on December 28, 2024 at 12noon, with an 11:30am viewing.

Rest in peace. You will forever be remembered in the hearts of those you loved and who loved you.
