“ Dear Family, My sincere condolence to your family. The pain is not easily erased, so God’s Word beautifully describes the conquering of death and old age. The Bible says: “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”—Isa. 25:8. “And he [God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”—Rev. 21:4. “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.”—1 Cor. 15:26. ““Death is swallowed up forever.’ ‘Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?’”—1 Cor. 15:54, 55. This grand hope of release from the grip of old age and death gives great encouragement to us in these trying times, and helps to sustain us during times of grief. The restoring of dead ones to life presents no problem at all to the Creator, since he created man and woman in the first place. Re-creating people from his divine memory will be for God a simple task. Jesus not only performed marvelous cures for the sick and infirm but resurrected the dead. —John 11:38-44. What a marvelous day it will be when our dead loved ones are welcomed back to life so they, too, can benefit from God’s great healing and restoration program! Sincerely,
Del Amiel

“ Heaven gained a new angel, but I am sure you will be watching over your family. Say hi to my grandma and know that you are deeply loved and will be truly missed by everyone you have touched in your life. My deepest sympathy to the family, now is the time to celebrate her life and know she is finally in peace not suffering and is home. Xoxoxo
