“ I loved Alice. She was my first friend at the bridge club. Kindred spirits, we met at the ash tray and "hit it off" immediately. Upbeat and joyful, she had a wonderful sense of humor and always had something nice to say about someone or something. I was honored to be a guest in her home and always had a good time. She loved her children unconditionally, and they are fine people. There aren't enough Alices in the world, and this one will be sorely missed.

Sincerest condolences,
