*To Sandy and family,
I know that there are no words that can express the shock and loss you are experiencing right now. All I can say is that I/we know that he and your mom are enjoying the grand reunion that he has so longed for since her transition to our heavenly home! Allan, always, has been a wonderful, Christian friend and support to me, Bob and so many others throughout life's celebrations and sadness (quite the prayer partner!). May God be with you as you carry on - as I know he and your mom so faithfully taught you - - what great witnesses they have been for you and so many others! Phil 4:13!!!!*

God be with you and the entire family! (I hope to return to Ocala from my mother's in IL in time to see you Saturday - still indefinite plans but will be with you in Spirit, regardless!)

“ Compassionate, caring, kind, 'ray of sunshine'--some of the superlatives used to describe Allan by coworkers and colleagues from around the state. While we are overwhelmed with sadness, we are blessed to have had the privilege of Allan's dedication and devotion to family, friends and the work that he did.
