December 7, 1966 - May 21, 2016

AMY LYNNE ENGLISH, BELOVED MOTHER, SISTER, DAUGHTER

Amy's too-short-a-life ended early Saturday morning, May 21, 2016, of complications from Lupus. We miss her so much but she will live on in our hearts forever. We know God has taken away all her pain and she is reunited in heaven with other loved family members. She is now our blessed guardian angel.

She is survived by her daughter Ivony, her brother Rob and his wife Barbara, her mother and father, Bob and Judie, and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

We are having a celebration of her life at our home (2331 Franklin Street, Fort Myers, FL 33901) on Saturday, May 28, 2016, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. The Reverend Zachary Seitz will be offering a blessing at 1 p.m., followed by refreshments and memory sharing with those friends and family who wish to attend.

If you were thinking of sending flowers, Amy's family asks that you consider donating to lupus.org

If you wish to share your memories of Amy with our family, you can leave messages or pictures at <http://www.gendronfuneralhome.com/obituaries/Amy-English/>

WORDS FROM HER DAUGHTER, IVONY

My beautiful mom has left this earth so suddenly. She had so many physical problems the majority of her life, more than anyone should have to deal with. It really wasn't fair what she had to go through on a daily basis. She tried to be strong for so long and her heart just gave out and her body couldn't do it anymore. She was my very best friend and I will miss her terribly. There is a giant hole in my heart but I'm just glad she went peacefully in her sleep and that I was home to say goodbye to her at the very least. I have a little bit of comfort knowing she's not in pain anymore and doesn't have to suffer. She is finally free. I love you so much mom and I'll miss you every day until I see you again.

“ To Mr. and Mrs. English, Robert and the entire family,

While it's been years, high school 1984, since I last connected with Amy, I am deeply saddened to hear of Amy's passing. I am truly sorry for your loss. My memories and time with Amy during our high school years, including our years in band, are as clear as yesterday - - that will be something that I will remember always. May god bless her and keep her close. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ My heart goes out to all of you. Uncle Bob & Aunt Judie raised a wonderful daughter and she loved you both so much. Ivony, your mother was fortunate enough to have you as her sweet daughter as well as her best friend. Robbie, she was so lucky to have a brother like you & a sister-in-law like Barb. I will be forever grateful to be Amy's cousin. I bet she is up in heaven playing bingo right now...
