

Anna Fritz Delmonte

October 6, 1920 - December 26, 2011

Anna Maria Van Gurp Fritz Delmonte left many friends and family early Monday morning, December 26, 2011.

She was born in Den Haag, Holland, October 6, 1920 and came to the United States with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus in 1947. She began her show business career as a ballerina, then in her teens became a contortionist and aerialist. She can be seen in the movie "The Greatest Show on Earth" in 1952. Later she performed with animals and then she put together a very famous Chipmantee act. Later in life she became a seamstress.

She was 91 years old years old.

Anna was preceded in death by her son, Frederick Alexander Hermsen.

She was survived by her son, Rudolph Paul Fritz Delmonte, her daughter-in-law

Lyne McSwain Delmonte; 3 grandchildren, Desiree Delmonte Fritz, Kelsie Delmonte and Steven Delmonte, and her friend Mary Jane Miller.

She now has left us to join the other entertainers who now perform in Heaven and she would wish everyone not to grieve because she is now back performing and doing what she loved.
