

Anthony J Papanicolaou

December 26, 1949 - April 3, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Anthony J Papanicolaou

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Anthony J Papanicolaou

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ I have countless fond memories of my uncle. He was a wonderful person. I spoke with him every single week before he passed suddenly. Only 2 days after speaking with him did I learn that he had left us. What can I say? I was shocked initially. Our conversations over the last year of his life were quite cherished. I remember when he had to reluctantly take a job he did not want because his family came first. I would stop by and surprise him with a bite to eat, some jokes, and just my company. He always thanked me for thinking of him. During our recent conversations we had a great time talking about family, some of the wonderful things I inherited, our favorite musicians, sharing hilarious stories of my son’s childhood goofs, and just reminiscing about some of the wonderful and memorable trips that I was privileged to go on summer after summer with the family. Looking through photos of his lifespan from childhood until death reminds me that my uncle was a fantastic person. Seeing how he held his children with such a smile... he was an immeasurably warm person. I’ll never forget him. I saved his last voice mails to me so I could hear his voice one last time. While I’ll never forget what he said, I’m sad to say that a phone upgrade caused me to lose those recordings. Still... his voice and his laughter are forever engraved in my memory.

I love you, Uncle Tony, and miss you dearly. 🤘😎🤘

I hope you’re in Harley Heaven. Say hi to my fallen idols for me. 🎸🎸

GR

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Greg - April 17, 2018 at 08:39 AM

GR

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Greg - April 17, 2018 at 08:39 AM

GR

“ 1 file added to the album Anthony

Greg - April 17, 2018 at 08:38 AM

GR

“ I am the youngest son of Anthony Papanicolaou. My father was a very gentle soul, and was loved by all that knew him. He was a very skilled florist known for his precision and creativity, winnings awards in NY for his style and work. He moved to FL in 2003 where he worked for the Florida school system before finally retiring He loved his 3 children more than anything and will dearly missed by all who were lucky enough to know him. RIP Dad,

Gregory

Greg - April 17, 2018 at 08:25 AM