

Armand Marc Tremblay

December 12, 1935 - January 29, 2024

Armand Marc Tremblay passed away on January 29th, 2024, in Lehigh Acres, FL. He was born December 12th, 1935 in Beverly Massachusetts, the youngest of seven children to his Mother Alice (Jacques) and Father Leonidas Tremblay. From high school, he joined the Air Force where he served overseas and domestically for 10 years. He worked for the United Shoe Machine Company, he became a home builder, a manufacturing plant manager, building code enforcement officer, mechanic, and general fixer of all things from Massachusetts, Washington, California, Maine, and finally to Florida. He was an avid outdoorsman, he loved hunting and fishing his whole life. He was most at home in the woods in Maine. He leaves behind his wife Heinrike (Grasmueck) Tremblay, daughter Heidi Tremblay and partner Andrew Hessong, and son Christopher Tremblay. He'll live on in our hearts and memories.
