

Arthur Clayton Brown Sr

July 10, 1942 - January 2, 2026

Arthur Clayton Brown, Sr., a devoted husband, loving father, cherished grandfather, and faithful servant of God, peacefully entered eternal rest on January 2, 2026, at the age of 83.

Born in West Virginia and raised in Virginia, Arthur was a man of strong character, deep values, and unwavering determination. He was a very hard worker—self-determined, disciplined, and firm in his ways. Arthur believed in doing things right and never waiting until the last minute. His life reflected responsibility, dedication, and quiet strength.

Arthur found joy in the simple pleasures of life. He loved fishing, watching old-time western movies, listening to gospel music, and relaxing in his favorite chair while keeping up with the news. One of his favorite pastimes was riding his lawnmower—not only to cut the grass, but to take peaceful rides by the canal, watching the fish and often stopping to fish himself. He deeply loved his loyal dog, Bruno, who brought him great companionship.

Above all, Arthur loved his family. He was a firm yet loving man whose presence brought stability, reassurance, and guidance. His love for his grandchildren was immeasurable, and he took great pride in each of them.

Arthur is survived by his beloved wife, Blossom Brown; his children, Cookie, Cori Brown-McGill, Stacy Ely, Arthur Clayton Brown Jr., and Jason Brown; and his eight grandchildren. He is also lovingly remembered by the many close friends who stood by him for years and became family in their own right.

Arthur's earthly chapter has closed, but his soul lives on in eternal glory. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord," and in that promise, we find hope that reaches beyond our grief. He now dwells where every tear is wiped away and where everlasting light surrounds him.
