“ Hey art this is Chad just wanted to tell u that even though we never spent to much time together I have become a decent man with two beautiful girls that I adore wish u could have met them but all in all I think you would be proud of who I have become and maybe one day I will see u again ...

chad stafford - May 19, 2014 at 10:58 PM

He would of been proud. Maybe now he is cause now he can see you and watch over you all.

Kimmi tindle - May 19, 2014 at 11:04 PM

Chad it has been a long time since I have seen you and your sister Leann and I am so sorry for your loss. Yes, I believe he would have been proud of you. My heart and prayers are with you Chad.

well i know we didn know each other that good but just wanted to say u will be miss love leann leann stafford - May 17, 2014 at 08:29 PM

Maybe now he will see all of you and maybe he can take care of all of you from heaven. They said he asked for forgiveness so I am sure he is up there.

Kimmi Tindle - May 17, 2014 at 08:59 PM

Leann it's been awhile since I have seen you but I know that your father loved you very much, Arthur was just Arthur, you had to really read him at times, he was unique. My heart & prayers are with you and I love you.

“ To all his family I send my prayers your way. I know that you will miss him and we are truly sorry for your loss. I have posted a comment and pics on here so he has something.

Kimmi Tindle - May 17, 2014 at 02:36 PM

To ALL who loved Arthur I just want to say I am so sorry for your tragic loss. We all will keep our love for him locked away in our mind and in our hearts. Oh the memories to behold.

“ Art this is Kimmi. I tried to find you or even a family member to talk with you. I wanted you to know that I forgave you for the past. I only wish I could of found you before you left this earth. I hope you were happy and content with your life and that you found a good person to take care of you. I know that you will be missed by your family.

While I lived, listened and loved Arthur (T) for the last 12 years of his life, he shared the memories of each and everyone he ever knew with me, and all of his 7 children were always first and foremost in his thoughts and prayers. He was a most interesting and amazing man, who wanted everyone to have the best in life they could. He spoke often of his days as a young man. He told me of his hopes and fears as a Combat Marine, as he lay in a rice paddy in Vietnam, while his comrades lay still around him. His path back to healing and family and friends, and his days as a Rodeo Bull rider. He told too of his deeds and misdeeds as he tried to find peace in life. He never acted in half measures and always put his all into everything he did. He told of women in his life, and what he'd learned from each one. His gifts to each and everyone was his love and deep understanding. His friends were the best of the best to him and he'd reward them with his laughter and smiles, but his best love was God. So when the final moment came upon him, he left with a lightness of being. A freedom and peace of those who love God and who God loves on his face. I know that he would wish for you all to know his great love, as the sun shines on you and for you, and when ever you hear music playing, dance.
