“ I was a student of Mr. Bik in Cleveland in the late '60s. I remember him as an excellent teacher and a consummate gentleman at all times. We did not know anything of his background at that time--only learning of it years later. My respect for him and his positive outlook has grown through the years. Sadly, I never met his wife. Knowing him, she must have been a wonderful lady. My deepest condolences to Mr. Bik and his family.
