“Gammie could light up a room with that smile. She had such a loving, compassionate heart and man was she fun. She called me her “wild child”. I will miss our conversations filled with laughter. The picture below is of Gammie and my mama Rosie, who she loved. Now they are both in heaven. I love you my sweet Gammie Lou Belle ❤️ Until we meet again.

“Affectionally known as our “Gammie”. She was absolutely a jewel! Met her at Parisian Department Store in Richland Fashion Mall, 33 years ago while attending the University of SC. We shared so many special moments of joy, laughter, lunch/dinner, trying on clothes in the Junior Department and testing fragrances/makeup in Cosmetics! She will never be forgotten and will always be my Gammie! When we called her Gammie, her response was “That’s right, I’m the Gams”! She always told us she loved us and did not play about her Parisian girls. Her beautiful spirit will always live in my heart!!! ❤️🙏
