“ Our hearts are saddened to hear the news of Betty passing. She always welcomed us into her home with open arms, and true southern charm. We were welcomed many times for dinner and conversation with the O'Quinn family, Chuck, Pat & Tom, Debbie & Neal, Tina, Buzz, and the many grandchildren. Having these fond memories of Betty and her family, will never be forgotten....Nor will Betty. May The Lord be with you All.

“ My prayers and deepest Sympathy goes out to the entire O'Quinn family.

"Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy" John 16:22

Chuck and Pat,

I pray that God will surround your entire family with his love, and will comfort you all in this time of sorrow. I pray that your remaining family will all come closer together during this time than ever before. I know that is what Betty would want.

Again, my deepest sympathy. I am so sorry for your loss!

Sincerely,

Steve Burkholder
