

Betty Jane Sheffield

November 11, 1935 - June 5, 2022

Betty Jane Theis Schnebly Sheffield

November 11, 1936 – June 5, 2022

Born Betty Jane Theis in Washington DC as daughter to John Theis and Thelma Wildrick. Married Jack Schnebly 1953 and had three children, Sherrille 1955, Mark 1957 & Scott 1959. Divorced in 1960.

Married Donald Sheffield and had one son Sean in 1969. Divorced Donald 1972.

Betty leaves one living sibling, John Theis in Indiana. Her sister Annabelle McMahon of New Jersey passed in 2020.

Betty also leaves, two grandsons, four granddaughters, three great grandsons and two great granddaughters.

Betty passed away in her sleep due to Alzheimer's on Sunday June 5, 2022 in her assisted living facility in Punta Gorda, Florida, Best Care Senior Living. The family thanks all the caring people at Best Care and also, Tidewell Hospice Care who took such great care of her during her last years. She was a follower and teacher of Ayurveda cooking and life skills as well as practiced Transcendental Meditation. She was a writer and author of a number of self-published books. A spiritual teacher, wellness.

The family and friends will be having a service on September 5, 2022 to celebrate her life.

Tribute Wall

“ Betty Jane Sheffield

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Betty and I were friends for many years. I last saw her in 2016 in Fairfield. We lost touch after that. I'm so glad that she was able to spend her final years close to family. I know she loved her children very much. She had so many good qualities. I will always have fond memories of her.

Betty Boothe - May 25, 2023 at 04:57 PM

“ Betty Jane Sheffield

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Fond memories of Betty and her four children. A photo of Betty meeting my youngest son and earning the nickname "mountain Grandma".

Sean Sheffield - June 09, 2022 at 08:59 AM