

Beulah Skillinger

August 26, 1914 - October 2, 2010

Beulah S. Skillinger, of Lehigh Acres, formerly of North Augusta, SC passed away Saturday, October 2nd, 2010. She was 96 years old. Born August 26th, 1914 in Barnwell, SC, she was the loving wife to the late Lt. Col. Robert Skillinger for 56 wonderful years. During Robert's time in the service, they were stationed in Okinawa, Japan; Adak, Alaska; and numerous Army bases in the United States. Beulah was active, as an officer's wife, in the Grey Ladies. Beulah and Robert fell in love with Alva and made it their retirement home in 1961. Her hobbies included tending to an organic garden, growing orchids and rare fruits. She was a member of the Alva United Methodist Church for over 46 years where she served as a Sunday School teacher. A founding member of the Alva Garden Club and the Alva Museum, Beulah was active in the community that she loved. Although she had no children of her own, her door was always open to the children in the Alva community, to help with school projects or anything else that they needed. She was a loving sister-in-law to Fay Still of North Augusta, SC, and leaves behind several nieces and nephews who will miss her dearly. Visitation will be held 10am-11am Monday, October 4th, 2010 at the Alva United Methodist Church 21440 Pearl St. Alva, FL. Funeral services will begin at 11. Burial will follow in Alva Cemetery. Contributions may be made to the church building fund.

Arrangements in the care of Anderson – Patterson Cremation and Funeral Services 2701 Lee Blvd Lehigh Acres, FL 33971. (239) 368 -7080. Visit www.andersonpatterson.com to send condolences.

“ I have fond memories of the Japanese Tea that Mrs. Skillinger hosted in the Home Economics Dept. at Alva School in the 60's. She was a friend of my Home Ec. Teacher Kay Maeder and Bea came to the classroom to work with Kay at times. She was such a gracious lady-always so kind and gentle-a wonderful Christian.
