“ She had so many qualities that I love. One that comes to mind is how candid she was when we talked. How loving it is to be candid!

Laughing is energizing and Bev did a lot of it. Our world seems a little darker with her gone.

“ I was the fortunate one to have Bev as my ANGEL on this earth. We shared so many mornings with a cup of coffee and I treasure the stories of her life she shared with me. I will be forever grateful for her friendship. I will miss her terribly.

“ Bev was like my second mother. She loved being a mother and devoted her life to Hal and her children. Her passing leaves a big hole in the lives of everyone who knew her. My prayers for family are continual during this time of loss. Love to all.

“ The Lindgren Family is more than special, and it is due largely, I believe, to Beverly. Her passing will, however, leave all of us with a feeling of a big hole in our hearts. There is no doubt that we all benefited from knowing Beverly, and from her contribution to our community. May peace be with the Lindgren Family.

“ I lost my Mom when you did. You know the surreal void that ensues. Whether spiritual, biological or something else, I think we all feel the part of the parent that's in us. Savor that feeling. Because soon, it becomes part of who we are.

“ Our thoughts are with with you and the entire family. It is a sorrowful time that will be easier with time and the knowledge that a peaceful slumber is now how she rests. Take solace in remembering the good that was and will always be. Your friends, The Nobles.

“ Dearest Mari, Jim, Kelby and Tyler?

I hope you find solace in the fact that your mother is a beautiful spirit who will live on in each and every soul she has touched. As your life moves inexorably forward I'm certain you will find peace. It may not seem likely right now but I know from experience.

When my parents died I was in such pain it literally felt like the air hurt.

At the time I thought my greatest loss was that my father would never see me graduate from college, walk me down the aisle at my wedding or delight in the beautiful children I knew I would one day have. When my mother died, I kept picking up the phone to call her then cried when I realized I couldn't. But I was wrong.

They are as close as my next heartbeat. They are in my every breath. I feel their arms around me in my darkest moments of despair. I can hear my father's big, loud, uproarious belly laugh when my daughter put my mom and me in the "time-out" chair (I'm certain of his great delight in that situation) and my mother's wisdom slowly is becoming my own. I sort of "channel" her when faced with difficult moments. She could read people like no other and I'm finally getting the hang of it now that she is that voice I hear.

They haven't missed one thing in my life or in the lives of my family. For I am convinced they are with all of us?always.

You and your lovely family are in my thoughts and prayers. Please know you will never be without her. Just listen and open your heart. Your mother will be with you always?I promise.

“ Dear Mari, Jim, Kelby and Tyler,

Our hearts are heavy tonight- feeling the loss of such a sweet soul. We have so many wonderful memories of Beverly, and I feel blessed to have known her through so many important milestones in our lives.

She was always so full of wonder at everything- so full of pride in you all. I loved that she and my mom became such good friends- always looking forward to their "almost birthday twin" celebrations. October 2nd will never go by without thinking of her and sending up a prayer. God bless you all, Hal, and God bless Beverly- finally at peace, and always with you in your hearts.

Love always,

XOXO Leisa and family
