“ *Dear Brent and Nancy,
It has been a while since we last spoke and I was truly saddened to read about this terrible accident. I loved your sons and enjoyed babysitting WAY BACK. Your family has always been special to me. Please know that you are in my prayers.

“ To Brent's Parents: Being a mother of children the same age as Brent, I cannot imagine your sorrow. I can only say I hope it helps to know that you raised a fine son!! He worked with me, and many times, when our managers were gone he had to answer to me. He always showed the utmost respect. Never a bad spirit, always a kind voice and willingness to follow through with the task at hand. A fine young man! To Brent's Girlfriend: You indeed were the light of his life, and we spoke of you and your son many times. To all who grieve for him now, remember that Gods Word gives us this promise for Christ's return in Revelation 21 "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things will pass away." So take comfort....because we will see Brent again, of this I feel most certain.
