

Brian Ashley Flowers

June 28, 1981 - July 21, 2019

Brian Ashley Flowers, 38 passed away on July 21, 2019 in Fort Myers, FL after losing a hard fought battle with addiction. Brian was born on June 28, 1981. He is survived by his sister Kimberly Danielle Flowers, her husband and two children and his only son Jaydyen Nathaniel Flowers. He is preceded in death by his father, Franklin D. Flowers, mother Shirley Ann Flowers and son, Brian Ashley Flowers II. We now understand Brian's addiction was a mental illness, and he could not choose the sober path. Even through his constant struggle with addiction, he never lost the gifts that God gave him, which were his poetic heart and ability to show others how much he loved them through his words. May his words forever be his legacy. In lieu of flowers the family requests that you donate to Brian's funeral expenses at:<https://www.gofundme.com/brian-flowers>

*Brian...my friend...u were such a great person. And I had some amazing times with you..I even gave you a Nick name "florida" cuz u was stuck in Spokane and I let u stay with me... And we kept our friendship goin even tho you went back to Florida ... U were so sad and stuck when I met u but once you went back home I could see the light in you face come back. I hope ur enjoying the heaven and being free from the pain I will see you when I get there...to soon for such a young soul...r.i.p BRIAN FLOWERS U WILL BE MISSED
♥LOVE YOU♥*

“ There is an emptiness in my soul that will never be filled you'll be forever missed you know it's funny the other day I was at the 7-Eleven and it dawned on me I'm never going to see you walk through the doors again the pain was unbearable I started to cry I asked God God how am I going to get through this life without my brother it's a feeling I'll never be able to explain it's a sad that never goes away siblings are born with an unbreakable Bond. You will forever be apart of me. I love you for all the days of my life until we meet again rest in peace my brother
