“ Awww Brian! It has been many years since we went to school in good ole Tilton, NH. It's hard to believe you are really gone! As always you were a friendly face in the crowd and never failed to say hello! You will be missed more than you know! Rest in Peace Brian...My condolences to your family and close friends. A Good Man left us here on earth..but Heaven gained one!

“ Brian will be deeply missed by everyone at Yellow Cab of Sarasota. I have had the pleasure of working with Brian for several years and he was truly a stand-up guy. Brian had nothing but great qualities in a person and we are all so sad to see him pass.

“ Brian had been my best friend in high school. I hadn't seen him in ages but had recently got reconnected. He and I were going to get together in either June or July due to his work schedule. To his brothers Ward and Jimmy, I feel your loss and I am so sorry. To his children that I haven't met your dad was a great guy and I will truly miss him. I will see you at the service.

“ Brian was my ex-husband and we always remained great friends. My husband Chris, Brian and me had Thanksgiving together last year at Yoder's Restaurant since Vanessa and her family were out of town. It was an enjoyable day and I'm glad we went. Brian also donated platelets at Suncoast Communities Blood Bank. His Platelet, plasma and blood donations surely saved many lives. Brian will be missed by many people.

“ I can say that different feelings kept us apart, I am glad to know what I know of you and sad we were not able to meet face to face. I do need to tell you dad that I am not mad anymore, although I will still have the hole in my heart, we will meet one day. May you rest in peace.

“ Dad, we did not always see eye to eye. We were on the outs for a long time but you was really trying. I regret that our relationship could not have been like so many other father/daughter relationships but in the end what we had was ours and we did love each other. Rest in peace dad, I love you.
