“ Officer Pingry was the trooper that came when a good friend and myself were in an accident on I-75 a couple of years ago. Although neither of us were hurt, we were very shaken. The car had landed in a watery ditch and we were unable to get out for a while. He stayed right with us, talked us down and was so very kind and helpful. He was the first one we saw at the accident and the last one there when we were picked up by friends. He stayed the whole time and helped us. I will never forget his kindness, helpfulness and professionalism. My heart felt condolences to his family.
