“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why Brody left this earth so soon, or why he left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived. And that his life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

“ The loss of a child is something no one should have to endure.
My heart breaks for all of you everytime I see Brody's precious little face, hear his name or read about him on facebook. I know this is Gods plan but it does not make it any easier to accept. I will keep your family in my prayers to help in the healing of this unexpected loss.
