

Bruce Allen Kindred

June 7, 1962 - September 8, 2020

Bruce was a man that lived to work and love his family. A loving son and caretaker for his mother. A good friend, amazing father and the kind of papa every kid deserves. He was the puzzle piece to his family that provided unconditional love, support and countless life lessons. If you knew Bruce, you knew he was happiest in his knee pads throwing floor down with his crew of guys that he taught and loved along the way. Everyone has a wild story with Bruce, a wild soul here to have a good time. He will truly be missed. As he would tell you... if you cant be good, be good at it. Until we meet again old man. Bruce is survived by his mother Mary Francis Kindred, sons Matthew and James Kindred, lil girl Toni, and brother David. Grandchildren Hailey, Dominic ,Layne, Trenton, Truitt, and lil baby Jimbo (TBD) Preceded in death by his father James G. Kindred, his brother Gregory and former wife Lil Debbie.

“ Daddy, I am so very thankful god granted me 35 years with you... not all of them easy but I would walk 500 miles.. just to be with you. You provided a sense of comfort and protection by just being there. We love you so much papa! Until we hug again...
