“ Bruce, it's been 13 years already since you crossed and I still miss you terribly.
Your humor, your observations, your inappropriate comments used to make me laugh till my eyes welled with tears and my stomach hurt.
Now my eyes well with tears for our loss of you.
Here's to hoping I find you on the other side of the river. The laughter will be loud, my friend

“ *Day is done, gone the sun,
From the lake, from the hills, from the sky;
All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.*

*Fading light, dims the sight,
And a star gems the sky, gleaming bright.
From afar, drawing nigh, falls the night.*

*Thanks and praise, for our days,
'Neath the sun, 'neath the stars, neath the sky;
As we go, this we know, God is nigh.*

*Sun has set, shadows come,
Time has fled, Scouts must go to their beds
Always true to the promise that they made.*

*While the light fades from sight,
And the stars gleaming rays softly send,
To thy hands we our souls, Lord, commend.*

“ Dear Susanne, Beth and Amy,
I remember Bruce as a nice polite teenager during that weekend trip to your Upstate home all those years ago. That trip with all of you still remains a pleasant memory. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss.
