“ It is sad to hear of Bryan's passing. His love for aviation is well known, and it was a great honor and pleasure to teach the man to fly. Like everyone else I've taught, he had his ups and downs (quite literally, too ), but his persistence always prevailed. I'll always miss him, and cherish the times we shared the cockpit. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ My sympathies to Bryans family. I started with NWA in 1985 and remember meeting Bryan once. He left a legacy.

A true and highly respected Vice President for NWA. I also worked with his daughter-in-law, Jane. A great person.
