“ Caden bug you brightened my days brought joy to my life and lots of love to my heart. Everyone told me you wont know what true love is till you have a child of your own. that was true your love for your child is a different love for anyone else. Caden the day were took from me was the day I felt my heart like never before heart felt like it was going to stop and the world was spinning so fast and I was standing still. A piece of my heart was took to heaven. Its hard not having you here and I don't know what happen and why you are not here with me. This will be the hardest thing I have ever have to go through in life is losing my baby boy. I miss you so much and I just wish I could hear you or feel you near me because I miss you so much and the joy you brought me of being a mother was so amazing and I will never be able to forget it. I know god gave you to me for a reason and you saved my life and changed my life so much your mommy's hero. Thank you so much Caden. I don't know why I only had 16 months with you but I am sure I will find out when I get to heaven.
