“ I know Candy since she was a child. We spent many Christmases together in NJ and one Christmas in FL. Your struggle is over . Rest in peace. I cherish the gifts you made and sent to me . I wrapped the ashes of my cat in the Christmas stocking you made with her name on it. Will never forget you. Loving prayers, Irene Murray

“ I met Candy when she chose me to get a new Shih Tzu puppy. We had already been friends on facebook. She walked me through the process of choosing the right pup since I lived so far away. Flame is that pup. We were both so excited when he got invited to the AKC Invationals. She invited me to come watch and I accepted. We were both looking forward to meeting and visiting. Though I've never formerly met Candy she has touched my life in such a wonderful, positive way. She was one of the kindest people I've known and I will forever miss our conversations and sharing her excitement about her dogs.
