“ He was a very good friend, who loved the Lord. He wrote a beautiful poem about the Sabbath. for me. He stayed at my place while I was gone and he appreciate it. he will be greatly missed. I guess he knew this was coming and he hid it. he told me he will just hide when the time comes. he didn't want me to experience the pain of loosing another friend again. he told me he will just disappear, he took an apartment close to the house that was being built for me, and he was really looking for my return from the mission trip so he can go with me, to see the things I was furnishing my place with and I got the pool for he insisted on sitting in the hot tube in the pool. I have been wondering why he has not called me. I talked to him from Galapagos on the 19 and I arrived on the 2/22 and I try calling him but he doesn't answer his phone. I just saw the obituary that he died the day I was coming home from Lima, Peru. He was going to surprise me in Lima and we fly home together
