“ So Carl was my oldest male cousin, 10 years older, so I also looked at him as a ladies man. Always seemed in my young mind to have a pretty girl on his arm. He would say, “David, if I had as many women as you think I’d be a legend.” Carl, don’t let the truth get in front of a good story. You were a legend in my mind & I’m sticking to my story. God Bless

“ I met Carl when he moved to Memphis and we worked for the same company. We became drinking buddies and each other's wingman. I have so many memories of Carl, most of which would be best shared over a beer.

I do have a memory to share about a business conference we attended to present our products. These were the days of slide shows where presenters had a round deck of slides and a projector operator would click to move from slide to slide. Carl volunteered to be the operator. Well, the speaker before me was painfully boring. Dull slides, dull voice, dull topic that was seeming to go on forever. Carl at some point had enough and would change the slides before the speaker gave the signal to do so. The result was hilarious because the speaker didn't correct Carl, rather he simply began to talk faster to try to cover the points on the slide before Carl went to the next one. Everyone in the room, except the speaker, figured it out and loved it.

Carl was a gentleman and a real sweetheart and I will miss him dearly. Bob “ Carl was my boy next door and my best male friend forever. From the time I could walk Carl always teased me and gave me heck!!! But he always had my back! He was the most generous person I know.

Carl, I loved you then, I love you now, and I will love you forever!!!!

“ So many memories of Carl. He coached the girls softball team at Cylix and he had so much patience with us as we didn't know what we were doing! It's been a few years since I saw him at the Cylix reunion in Memphis, TN and it was like years had not passed by. What a great guy and truly a one of a kind. My condolences to the family.
