“ I just found out about this tragedy and my heart is broken. I was a long-time client of his back in mid 90s and loved his extremely talented craft, his personality, and the stories we shared. He was such a confident person whose wife and son were absolutely adorable and they seemed to be so happy. I was completely unaware of his situation at the time of his passing. He was also very generous to his community and beyond. What a HUGE loss for this world. So, so sad! HIS HEART FOR ALL THAT HE KNEW WAS THE BIGGEST EVER! LOVE YOU, CARLOS. REST IN PEACE ... I KNOW YOU'RE WITH THE LORD! (Love from Kathie)

“ Carlos, I remember my mom going into the salon to get her hair cut. Then you offered me a job at the reception desk during my first year of college. I'm sad about your passing and find myself thinking and going back to the great times we all had together doing hair modelling and hair shows. You are missed, you are loved by many. I am confident I will see you when I get to heaven. Shan

“ You have known John for such a long time..way before I ever met John. He always looked up to you and was always a friend. I can remember you doing my hair for my wedding to John...and the girls...Kelly and Kiera loved you...You were the first one that ever cut their hair...and they always knew who you wereand I can remember them telling me...especially Kiera.."I went with Daddy today to see Carlos to get his haircut"..I know they probably drove you nuts in the shop..typical kids! We'll always remember you and miss you

“ RIP Carlos, 30 yrs ago you convinced me to cut my long hair to flatter my face, since then I have thought of that during every cut. We spent many hours chatting about God and recovery, and discussing our trials and tribulations on our journeys. You had such a kind soul, lost, but kind. You even embraced my son and influenced his future and self esteem, only God knows how many heart you touched. I am glad your pain is gone...prayers for your children and family

“ Carlos was one of the first people I met after moving to the area almost 30 years ago. His spirit is unique and authentic. He had the courage to live his life..never on the side lines.. But with passion, out in the open for all to see. Few people have this level of courage.. When I recognize it in others, I honor and respect it. Love him, hate him, respect him or fear him...The choices are there. But one thing for certain ... No one will ever forget him. Sail on Carlos....peace is now yours.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. It has caused such pain and heartache for so many. I pray peace and healing over your family. Carlos was a customer at the cleaners where I am employed. He was also the only person I would allow to touch my hair. He is now at peace and there are no demons to chase him any longer. I recovered from my own demons in the year 2001. We shared stories about our similarities in life on more than one occasion. The last time being four weeks ago. He looked awesome on that day as he worked with my hair and left footprints on my heart. Please know that I too am struggling with this loss. God speed
