

Carlos Enrique Ramirez

February 24, 1955 - October 23, 2025

In Loving Memory of Carlos Enrique Juan Ramirez

February 24, 1955 – October 23, 2025

It is with deep sadness and enduring love that we announce the passing of Carlos Enrique Juan Ramirez—a devoted servant of Jehovah, a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend.

Carlos was, first and foremost, a man who loved Jehovah God. His faith guided every aspect of his life and inspired all who knew him. Next to his devotion to God, Carlos was a true family man who deeply cherished his beloved wife, Ana Ramirez, and their sons—Carlo, Renzo, and Diego.

Carlos and Ana shared 49 wonderful years of marriage, a bond built on mutual love and respect, just as beautifully expressed in Ephesians 5:33. Together, they created a home filled with warmth, laughter, and enduring faith.

Carlos had a passion for sports of all kinds. Whether cheering on the Miami Dolphins, the Miami Heat, or the Peru national soccer team, he brought the same energy and enthusiasm that defined his life. His vibrant personality and great sense of humor lit up every room he entered, naturally drawing people to him. Yet behind his big personality was a gentle and compassionate heart. He was known for his empathy, always ready to listen, offer wise counsel, and care deeply for others. Living in harmony with his faith, Carlos dedicated his life to doing God's will—preaching the Good News and showing genuine love for people. Still, family always came first. He made sure to stay closely connected with those he loved, never missing an opportunity to reach out, laugh, or share encouraging words. Carlos shared a special bond with his sisters, Yanina and Patricia. Their weekly phone calls and cherished time together were filled with love and laughter that will forever be remembered. He will be sorely missed and can never be replaced. We look forward to the day when we can see and embrace him again. As John 5:28–29 reminds us, we hold onto the precious hope of the resurrection—a hope that comforts us and gives us strength through this great loss. We love you, Dad. We miss you deeply. Until we see you again. Carlos is survived by his loving wife, Ana Ramirez; his sons, Carlo Ramirez, Renzo Ramirez, and Diego Ramirez; his sisters, Yanina Todd and Patricia Valdeperas; his daughters-in-law,

Cecilia Ramirez and Karina Ramirez; and his beloved grandchildren, Gabriela Ramirez, Zachary Ramirez, Jacob Ramirez, and Josiah Ramirez.