

Carmen Lima

December 23, 1941 - June 23, 2013

Carmen Lima, 71, of Cape Coral, FL passed away on Sunday, June 23, 2013. She was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico on December 23, 1941. She had lived in Lee County with her daughter only since October of 2012 after living in Providence, Rhode Island for many years. She leaves behind to cherish her memory: 10 children, many grandchildren and great grandchildren, many nieces and nephews. Services will be held privately by the family at a later date. Please sign the guest book to express condolences to the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Carmen Lima

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Carmen Lima

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Dear Family: My sincere condolence to you with the loss of your love one; I know it is a very difficult time for your family. God knows how painful the death of a loved one can be so he has given us the hope of the resurrection to comfort us. He has promised that he will soon bring an end to sickness, suffering, pain and death. At that time “no resident will say: ‘I am sick.’” (Isaiah 33:24) Even the anguish of death will be done away with, for God “will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”—Revelation 21:4. In God’s promised new world, Christ Jesus will bring obedient mankind back to the perfection that our original parents, Adam and Eve, lost. Our loved ones will live again in perfection, never to die. - Luke 23:42, 43. The Bible gives a glimpse of the joy that the resurrection will bring to your family. Imagine the happiness the widow of Nain felt when Jesus stopped the funeral procession and resurrected her only son! Luke 7:11-17. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection in God’s Word, the Bible. Sincerely, Del Amiel

Del Amiel - June 25, 2013 at 11:14 PM

DA

“Dear Family: My sincere condolence to you with the loss of your love one; I know it is a very difficult time for your family. God knows how painful the death of a loved one can be so he has given us the hope of the resurrection to comfort us. He has promised that he will soon bring an end to sickness, suffering, pain and death. At that time “no resident will say: ‘I am sick.’” (Isaiah 33:24) Even the anguish of death will be done away with, for God “will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”—Revelation 21:4. In God’s promised new world, Christ Jesus will bring obedient mankind back to the perfection that our original parents, Adam and Eve, lost. Our loved ones will live again in perfection, never to die. - Luke 23:42, 43. The Bible gives a glimpse of the joy that the resurrection will bring to your family. Imagine the happiness the widow of Nain felt when Jesus stopped the funeral procession and resurrected her only son! Luke 7:11-17. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection in God’s Word, the Bible. Sincerely, Del Amiel

Del Amiel - June 25, 2013 at 11:14 PM