“ I had the special privilege to work with Cathy while employed at Hanson Real Estate Advisors, Inc. between 1990 through 1998. She had a very stressful job as the office manager/secretary and person who did everything for the boss, Woody Hanson, and a number of associate real estate appraisers including me. The workload was unbelievably challenging for all, but especially for Cathy. Fortunately, she had a fellow worker and friend, Wendy Doer, who also worked there as a secretary, to help carry the load. Cathy had great skills to do so many diverse tasks that were asked of her and to do so no matter what the sacrifice, often staying late or coming in on the weekend. She was dedicated to get the job done right. I will always be grateful for the special efforts she made to get my job out on time. But what I remember the most about Cathy was how special a Christian person she was. She cared about others, especially her family, practicing the Golden Rule. She loved God and she tried to love everyone she met. After leaving Hanson Real Estate Advisors, Inc., I would call Cathy (and Wendy) on their birthday every year to keep touch. I always enjoyed talking to them, at least once a year, and letting them know how special they were to me. God now has another special angel named Cathy in heaven. Alan Wilcox

“ Cathy was a quiet, unassuming person with a great sense of humor who was always fun to be with. She never wanted to be the center of attention but contributed her share of witty conversation when able. She left this earth way too soon. She will definitely be missed! Sherie and Joe

Cathy was first and foremost my friend who left us way too soon. I will miss her hugs, her laughter and her faith. We even had matching "Faith" t-shirts that she loved. I will miss her for so many reasons. She was my plus one
