“ My dearest Daddy I want to say I will miss you, the friend and the father that I came to know and love in these last four years. I am sorry that my siblings did not come to know you in the way that I was able to and I am sorry for their wounded hearts because you did not offer yourself as a father to them as you should have. I am equally sorry for you because they are all wonderful human beings and you missed out on knowing them. My prayer and hope is that while you were on this earth, you came to understand that your father in Heaven loved you unconditionally and offered you complete forgiveness in His son Jesus. I pray that you asked him into your heart and received him as your savior. I pray that I see you in heaven one day because I love you so very much and I will miss you every day until we meet again. Your daughter and friend. Kathy
