

Charla A Wolf

February 4, 1945 - November 29, 2018

Charla Anne Wolf passed away peacefully on November 29th, 2018 at her home in Sarasota, Florida.

She was born February 4, 1945 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Larry and Mary Canada. She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Roger A. Wolf Sr.; and her children Cammie Wolf Rice (husband John); Roger A. Wolf II; and Jane W. Miller (husband Alan). Charla took great pleasure in her grandchildren Christopher Wolf (1983 – 2016), Chase Browning, Taylor Wolf, Lauren Conigliaro, great grandson Bodhi Christopher Browning, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by brothers Carter, Thomas, and Jonathan Canada.

Charla's foundation was her Hoosier heritage, having been raised, educated, and married in Bloomington. She co-founded an all-female real estate firm there, and quickly earned her "Million Dollar Seller" pin. She was a politically engaged "child of the 60's" and a strong proponent of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Charla was very spiritual and always ready for adventure. She listened, learned, and was unique in her ability to network and open the doors of opportunity for herself and others. We remember Charla for her incredible (and unfiltered) wit and a personality that filled the room with love, compassion, and motivation for others.

She was the family Oracle.

Family and friends whose lives Charla touched are invited to Gendron Funeral Home, 135 North Lime Ave, Sarasota on December 15th for visitation starting at 3pm with a service following at 4:30. In January a service of remembrance will be held in Bloomington, Indiana.

In lieu of flowers, in Charla's honor we are asking for donations to be sent to Cambodian Children's Fund directed to Christopher's Hope. The mailing address is 2461 Santa Monica Blvd #833, Santa Monica, CA 90404

“ My best friend Charla had an amazing personality, had a huge warm heart, was compassionate, loyal, kind, witty, and wise. She never met a stranger and could always find the best in anyone she met. Charla knew how to connect with people instantly and they loved her. She was s well informed and could converse on many subjects and was never at a loss for words, I was very blessed to be her friend over many years and will always remember her and the fun we had talking about our adventures, world issues, angels, shopping, lifes twists and turns, and problem solving, She dearly loved her family above all else, always had ideas galore for those close to her and loved to share stories about growing up in Indiana and her family; Roger, write those stories down!!!!
I will miss her immensely. Rest in peace my dear friend! My sincere and deep condolences to her entire family; I am so very sorry I am unable to be there today. I send you much love

“ I met Charla through my place of employment, while she was recovering from an illness and needed a little nursing care and therapy, in order to get back home. Charla quickly latched on to my heart strings and i truly enjoyed my daily (and sometimes more) visits with her! We laughed together as she shared stories of her life adventures and of her family. We also shed tears together, which only pulled on my heart strings more. I visited Charla at her home and spoke with her frequently on the phone, when she would keep me updated on her progress. She spoke of her love for her family, many times and, I know that she will be dearly missed. Memories cannot take away the emptiness that family and friends feel at this time, but, they perhaps can provide comfort, to some degree. Memories are treasures from the heart. My warmest and deepest condolences go out to Charla’s family and those who cared about her.
