Charles Joseph Biedenweg, 79, of Montvale, New Jersey and Sanibel Island, Florida, passed away June 11, 2010 after a long and courageous battle with lymphoma.

Charles was born on October 22, 1930 in Bronx, New York, the son of Charles and Anna (Nolan) Biedenweg.

In the early 1930's, the family moved to Montvale New Jersey, where he lived for 77 years. After graduating from Park Ridge High School, he enlisted in the Army's famed 82nd Airborne Division where during the Korean War, he attained the rank of Master Sergeant. After returning from the service, he joined the Montvale Police Department. He retired as a Sergeant after 30 years of service. During that period he attended John Jay College of Criminal justice in NYC.

Charlie leaves to cherish his loving memory; his beloved wife of 46 years, Anne Biedenweg, his dear step daughter Anne Feltingoff and her husband Neal of Fort Myers, Florida, and 2 sisters Anne Frey and Christine Biedenweg residing in Montana.

He was predeceased by his younger sister Peggy.

Charlie and his family enjoyed world traveling and their annual trips to their beloved Sanibel Island home. Charlie was an accomplished carpenter and gardener. He also enjoyed reading, and cooking. He was a quiet, humorous and gentle man, who will be missed by all. We, his family, will forever love and miss him greatly.

“ *My sincere condolences to your family on Charly's passing. I was on the Park Ridge PD and worked with Charly for many years. What a wonderful man he was and I will never forget his quiet and gentle nature along with his great sense of humor. He was a pleasure to work with and I consider it a privilege to have known him. Although I had not seen him in years, he came to mind often and wondered where he had gone after retirement. Again, my sincere condolences and know that you were privileged to have had Charly in your life.
