“ We are sad with the passing of our dear Uncle Charlie. Uncle Charlie was a wonderful person who was always trying to bring a laugh to everyone with his various jokes. The one i remember the most is, " What is the 1st lesson in Japanese submarine warfare? Close all windows !! Uncle Charlie is not gone but will always live in our hearts. My wife stated that now Uncle Charlie is making them laugh in heaven. Uncle Charlie was a veteran of WW 2 and we respect and honor his service to our country. My grandfather and granmother Peters now have their entire family with them. Uncle Charlie, it is not goodbye but just so long.

“ It's sad to hear of Charlie's passing. He was a good man, who I am sure is dancing with Sylvia in heaven helping her take care of pets. My parents, Dean and Delma, enjoyed going to dinner and visiting with those two over the years. I had known "Aunt" Sylvia my whole life since my mom and her remained friends since graduating from Jefferson High in the late 1940's. As a youngin' I tagged along many times as they visited and loved to tell the latest joke I heard to Charlie and hear his. I will miss hearing him ask every waitress "Do you serve cornflakes?"

“ Tomorrow, May 2th at 10am, we will hold a service in celebration of Charlie's life at the Most Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Tampa, FL.

Charlie was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, friend, and yes...golfer.

As a young man, he proudly served his country in the U.S. Army during World War II in the 17th Airborne Division in the Battle of the Bulge, where he received a Purple Heart. As an adult, he worked as an insurance agent and a teacher at Hillsborough Community College.

He was a man of faith and had a genuine kindness that was felt by all. His humor was infectious and he was well known for being light-hearted, always seeking to bring a smile to your face.

He loved his wife Sylvia dearly, a true example of soul mates. Charlie called Sylvia "Hogan" and she called him "Parley"...and into their last days they spoke of a longing for each other, "I miss Hogan. What a wonderful lady.", grandpa would say. They built a beautiful life together with many friends, family, and lots of pets! We wish them eternal peace in heaven.

With his passing we are also thinking about his son, my father, Charlie Jr. who passed last June and was a source of such pride for him. He also shared his father's humor, kindness and compassion for people. We know that father and son are now reunited and it brings us great comfort to know that they are together again.

I am proud to be his granddaughter and will miss him greatly. We are all blessed to have been a part of his life. He will be forever in our hearts. We love you Charlie.

“ My dearest Godfather & Uncle who wanted to name my twin brother Jim and I, "Drip & Drop", or "Ping & Pong". Glad you didn't win that one with my mom Rosemary! :D We prayed together so many times, and I will remember all the laughter you brought into my heart. I know you are with your beloved Lord, as well as my mom, Aunt Sylvia, and your son, whom I called "Little Charlie". To Ashton, Jackie, & Teresa & their families, I pray our Lord Jesus will hold you in His loving arms during this sad time. My Uncle Charlie was one in a million & now the children of Stanley & Rose Peters are with them. You are missed already my dearest Uncle. You will not be forgotten. I love you. Your niece, Eileen. My husband Frank and I send our deepest sympathy.

“ Uncle Charlie was a true American hero. A member of the Greatest Generation he fought our countries battles, after the war he helped build the greatest country the world has ever seen, he provided for his family and he followed his faith to his ultimate reward. He rests now with his parents, brothers and sisters, and his son. God Bless Uncle Charlie.

“ Uncle Charlie was one of the most enjoyable people to be with, in the world. He created laughter and smiles in all who knew him. We had such good times when we were together, our times out for dinners. Our trips to Tampa and how gracious he was. Aunt Sylvia's sweet ways and calling him "Parley" Their crowd of animals, fish, birds and turtles. What a trip! We will miss his 'dow ya hoo-in" and the genuine warmth of his welcoming eyes. We look forward to seeing him again in Glory, and know that he is now dancing on the wonderful streets of gold. Then sitting with the Lord Jesus and making him laugh too. Our love to all his family our condolences to you, and our wishes that you will continue to celebrate the memories of his beautiful life. We truly miss him.

“ We were saddened to hear of the death of Uncle Charlie. Now all eight siblings are together with Mom and Pop. So glad that we have the memories of our January 2010 visit and the 2010 Peters family reunion as our last times with him. Fondly remember his corn flake joke.
He will be missed.

“ It is with great sadness to learn of my beloved Uncle Charlie's passing. He was a true gentleman who was loved by all who knew him. I will always treasure the fond memories and the jokes that made him one of a kind. Not only a WW II hero but a gigantic hero to us, his family. May you rest in the Lord's kingdom with your wife Sylvia, and your son. You will be sorely missed. I love you with all of my heart and soul. Your nephew Bernie

“ Charlie, you will truly be missed. Over the years playing golf with you, Vince and my grandson Chaz was a highlight event of the week.

You always had a joke or two (or three) that made us forget any issues we had. You are now with Sylvia in a better place.
