“ I frequently rode the city bus in St Petersburg. I often saw Mr. Roach at Williams Park. I remember him because one day, he noticed me crying because I did not have enough money for bus fare. He didn't know me, but gave me some money for the bus. I very much appreciated his thoughtfulness. I am a senior citizen and live here in St Petersburg. I am not a homeless person. I'm so sorry for the loss of Mr Roach. He was a decent person who cared about people and was much liked by his friends. May his memory be a blessing.

“ My sympathy goes out to everyone who misses Charlie..it is obvious that helped so many people..a truly selfless person. Please take comfort in this Scripture, Isaiah 25:8: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." I personally look forward to when this promise becomes a reality.

“ Charles was a wonderful person, with such a kind heart. I remember him showing me a book of poems he had and it was such a kind gesture. When my ex was stalking me, Charles would stay with me, until I got on the bus safely. He never wanted money, he did everything from the bottom of his heart. He has touched so many lives and was truly an angel here on Earth. He will be missed.

“ Charles was very kind to all of us at work release. One day I was so cold waiting for the late bus to go back to the center and he took a blanket from his cart and covered me up until my bus came. When I finally got to go home I went back to the park and gave him the comforter that I had while in work release. He was kind and full of compassion for humanity and had a passion for all of us at work release, helping us and genuinely caring.

“ your father was a very kind man, he helped more people then you will ever know. If he had something to eat and saw someone else was in need he would give it to them. I loved to here his stories everyday on the park. My heart and prayers are with you
