“ Cheryl It has been a long time that I have seen you. You friended me a while back and I was recently told that you had passed. I thought I would share a memory that we had a long time ago with Cheryl Thorne. I remember the night we three went out all dressed and looking bella to see your brother sing his Boz Scaggs songs. He was great and we had such a wonderful time. We saw Debbie (Macentyre?) and made her laugh through tears because another singer and boyfriend was leaving. It was a fabulous night and the one I reflect on when I think of you. I hope you are holding your daughter close and looking back at the joyous moments of your life here and using the sadder ones as the learning experience they were meant to be. I am glad to have known you, however briefly, and your beautiful laughing eyes.

“ Cheryl... Words cannot express the loss that I feel when I think of you and the times that we shared, Wish that you could have made that next comeback but you just couldn't. I'll miss the 6:30 a.m. phone calls and the 3 minute voicemails. I still play my voice mail every day just to hear your voice. And now you are finally at peace with no more pain. Rest now my beautiful sister and look down on us with Papa, Bev, Melissa and all the good ones. I love you forever...Mike...

My Dear Cheryl, your loss is hard for me to accept, it has hurt my heart in a way I can't understand. I have thought of memories in the past week that I have not thought about in so many years. I am trying so hard to focus on the positive, and I choose to remember my favorite sister and all the laughs we shared over the years. I will forever wonder what happened and question everything but know I love you and will miss you each and everyday. You are a beautiful person with a huge heart and I love you very much! I pray your at peace and free from pain. I also pray your with Mel and Dad and that your goofy smile is shining again. I love you my big sister, may you rest in peace always, MUAH!!!!
