“ Thank you for creating this page for Christian!

I just recently found his work a few months ago. I was very sad to learn that Christian was no longer with us - I would have loved to meet him. My deep condolences to his family and loved ones.

I'm very interested in connecting with others who are working to implement Christian's NTT. Have been studying common law, trusts, equity, etc for over 10 years and have been in heavy study for 3.5 years now! What I've learned is blowing my mind.

Thank you to everyone who is keeping his legacy alive...

“ I found Christian when I was struggling to make sense of the world. His message had the inner grace lacking in much of the "other" much larger community.

Christian's message hit home, but I didn't have a pressing issue to deal with. I was there out of curiosity. I ended up listening to nearly every audio he made, and ended up on several of the calls. My last call in to the show was in 2014 to report an Equity victory in the court room.

Opposition counsel confided in me after the proceedings that he minored in Equity (back when it was still taught in schools), was the only one in his office as trial counsel for a giant insurance corporation who understood our Equity pleadings, and he was assigned to personally handle our little case in a tiny backwater county of Ohio.

This stuff works and is as old as time itself. Apply the maxims to all your conduct and be amazed by what happens.

I can't thank CW or Lisa enough and look forward to carrying his vision forward alongside so many other soldiers for truth.

Onward, Christian Soldier!

“ Absent from the body, present with the Lord.

In Chritions case he was already with the Lord for so many years, and through the study he shared, with so many, of the God conscious mind, he truly has given us that ability to be present with the Lord right here on earth.

I, for one, will remember his teachings and continue to strive to be always conscious of the way to live Equitably while I am here and pass the knowledge on to my family and my peers.

Thankful for the light that was shown through your life Christian.

Christian and Lisa were always willing to share their time and give us information and knowledge about first God's scriptures and trust law! When I found out that Christian had passed away, my heart broke. I can only imagine how Lisa had felt and is still feeling. My love goes out to both you. I still hear Christian everyday from the recorded audios. May God continue to bless both Christian and Lisa!*

“ I was deeply touched by our loss of the physical presence of Christian by his homegoing. Everyone who knew CW, and his life's calling, both to lead us to the Father in Worship or Equity knows CW's passion for Righteousness, Complete Justice, Grace and Mercy.

I did not know CW personally, I only knew of him through his mentoring on line in Equity. Even this knowledge is mostly just his writings. His legacy lives on in the lives of so many he touched, and in turn, the betterment of those lives are in turn touched. His ministry is unique, and needed desperately in today's society. It's confirming that his work dealt in a significant degree with the written Word, and CW knew more than most, the power of the intent and purpose of the Word. The Word is his legacy, and will live on, to bless the lives of many who find the path, and begin to walk it in faith.

Lisa, as a wife, I know CW's physical loss on this earth will be felt deeply. I sincerely offer my deepest condolences. CW is truly be missed, and it will be such a joy to meet him in person one day soon.

“ i feel so deeply this absence in the body of CW even as i only knew him from audios and short time on the last calls, my heart is crushing for you lisa as being his mate, closest love and confidante, and care taker.. which is soooo very hard, you lisa are such a gift to him and a reward to him in his journey on this earth, you have exceeded all expectations with that beautiful heart of yours filled with love you gave freely. You are in my prayers dear sister, now during this hard time and in the days to come where you will be transitioning to whatever the Father has for you, praying for your highest best. i pray for your peace and regeneration and that you feel the love surrounding you. You are not alone.

Christian has compiled the only resource and fountain of examination, study and application of knowledge on equity that i'm aware of on the entire internet other than scripture, and it was he that clearly brought the awareness and revelation of the intrinsic link of equity and the Kingdom of God in Jesus Christ to us and any who will listen in the future, in free and open manner for the future, which has become the most prevalent reality in my life today and renewed a faith and higher purpose i once thought lost.. thanks to you and Christian. i am grateful beyond words.

Christian's life work is a work of God on this earth.. it is unique.. should be in written volumes for posterity, though that couldn't do justice to his uncountable hours of voice, which was the perfect instrument to relay this work, a remarkable voice, calm, patient, one of a true teacher translating the works of equity to the scriptures leading us to our true King and Creator ultimately.. a voice crying out in the wilderness.

Knowing that he ran the race in honor and fulfilled his mission on earth and now has surpassed this place of trial and fire, the work Christian has done and legacy he built continues to expand and stands as a beacon and light of the Truth that is the straight and narrow path, a testament to any who look to see that when this started Christian may not have had any clue of what would come of it.. and it turns out to be an amazing evidence on how a work of God is built, day by day, consistently as one follows the desires of his heart planted by God, to seek, knock, ask and find ... to encourage others to follow suit, not looking at circumstances, nor even seeing the fruition of their work, as Christian was possibly discouraged yet like Abraham was promised and did not see the fruit he was faithful believing that the word would not return void...

Hebrews 11: 8-13

8By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: 10For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. 12Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

Isaiah 55:11King James Version (KJV)

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord. What a testimony of both of you.

“ Dear Lisa,
I'm sorry to hear the passing of Christian Walters. The only comfort is that Christian is a child of God as he declared his faith throughout his teaching. He is indeed going to a better place. It's just sad that I was not aware of his condition before it's too late. I see people died left and right of me not knowing that I could have touch their lives had they opened up. We just want to let you know that you are not alone. Jesus will never leave you nor forsake you. He is closer than your breath. So stay in His presence as Christian is now in His presence and glory. “ best wishes and condolences to friends and family, CW was so far ahead... his insights the most profound... changed my concept of 'commercial redemption' he transcended it... and put my faith back into the worthiness of the pursuit... once again... on a path of learning that will forever expand ... he really found the proverbial 'promised land'... but who could have imaged how profound it would ultimately be?... he never got enough credit... the implications of his accomplishment are so mind boggling, it is only now beginning to wend its way through the movement... (and will for many years to come, no doubt...) God be with you Christian... a modern day Prometheus, or Moses... in our time...I hope to see you again. You truly gave my troubled life a purpose, a frame of reference, and a worthy goal... I knew the first time I heard you that you had found a way... I never doubted it for one second, not once... I couldn't understand why others couldn't understand... I think it was simply fear... It was once said of Kierkegaard's work that it was life changing.. you couldn't learn it without it changing your life... so too was your research... bringing back the lost texts... here's to you CW...

“ Since 1992, I have been in search of answers. Answers as to why, though I live in what is often called a "free society", that I had not felt "free". Some time before 2009 I randomly collected some recordings of Christian that he made with Desert Owl. In 2009 while searching for some answers, feeling I was closer, I was drawn to finally listen to one of these recordings. It was a vreath of fresh air. Coherent, intelligent, studious, measured and a great contrast to the rather rabid "paytriot" meanderings I had found over the years.

The recordings I had were few. I tracked down Desert Owl and he no longer interacted with or presented Christian's material. I searched some more and found him on Talkshoe. The rest is history.

Since finding Christian, and having the fortune of exchange questions for answers and validating my understanding of Equity and Natural Law, this meeting up has been instrumental in me finding my way out of battling with the forces of governmental authority and into an attitude of peace first. As a martial artist for most of my life, it has also affected how I interact with people, especially in potentially violent situations. It is much easier for me to assume hurt and need first, rather than ill intent. This is a world where so many are hurting, for many reasons. Whether these pains are self-generated or not, my contact with Christian, in the context of learning how to study Equity and understanding my rights, has also brought me into acceptance and understanding of my responsibilities, to myself and to my fellow humans, to behave with care, consideration and compassion first, rather than fear, uncertainty and ignorance.

Christian's influence on me has exceeded the bounds of the forum in which I met him. His presence and generosity have touched deeply into the marrow of my being.

I wish he could have received these words of gratitude before he passed.

I respect his conviction, sense of purpose and generosity of spirit. I hope that I can pass on the information that he gave me with just a grain of the positive influence that this voice over the internet had on me.

*May he rest. May his loved ones know peace in his passing.

Christian dedicated his life and his being, to generously helping others become FREE. With his insights on Equity as a legal remedy and as a way of life, he opened up our minds in ways we did not think possible. When answering questions from callers he was always very kind and patient, yet still exhorting us to do what needed doing, always manifesting that difficult balance between repose and action.

What a unique and beautiful soul. I hope those of us who tried to share in his deep insights will be his torch bearers and carry on the legacy he established.

“ I remember in early 2010 getting a phone number to a weekly call where a guy was teaching about trusts and equity. I dialed in on the right day and heard said guy reading out of a book. I thought to myself, "yay, a guy reading a book, big whoop" and I hung up. I later had the thought to call back and listen to Q&A, if this guy had such a thing. He did and wow, the questions were way out of my league, but the content caught my interest.

Fast forward 4 years and we have been through so many books, case cites, weekly calls and Skype conversations that it would take a swimming pool of terabyte hard drives to back it all up, lol. But the knowledge we gained is priceless. It literally changed many peoples' lives and the way they view the world...the eyes of equity... This guy then rocked everyone's boat and announced no more calls, many were devastated, including me.

This guy had something up his sleeve, as we came to expect from him, he started a new call, on a new platform: Equity in the Bible. What? The first call was astonishing because after years of learning about equity, its maxims, its operations, etc., many were floored to learn that it was in the bible too! Not just that, but it seemed that equity is how God operates. We read and learned about the maxims of equity, and now could see them all over in Scripture. This is a powerful thing to see, once you know that equity and law are completely different, and to be able to see that God operates in equity and man operates in law, you immediately want to learn all you can about equity so that you can walk closer to/with the All Mighty.

This guy, my friend, Christian brought out how over man's history, man has taken from the bible this thing we call equity and has both incorporated it and made an exact opposite of it: law. But, generally in all matters in which there is any conflict or variance between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law, with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail. Why? Because God trumps all and there shall be no other gods before Him. "And

He will judge the world in righteousness, He will minister judgment to the peoples with equity." Psalms 9:8 Equity is what is fair, just and right, isn't that what God is as well? Fair, just and right?

CW started a great adventure with a new pair of eyes with which to read the Scripture and it has forever changed my life in the way I look at the world (public vs private), read the Word of God and walking in His ways (first greatest commandment) and my interaction with my fellow man (2nd greatest commandment). Any Pastor could not go wrong by taking to time to understand the jurisdiction of equity so that he could pass that on to the people he is in charge of. Many already look at commentaries, or amplified bibles anyway, why not take a quick look at equity?

In closing: CWs favorite equity quote:

"Law is nothing without equity, and equity is everything, even without Law. Those who perceive what is just and what is unjust only through the eyes of the law, never see it as well as those who behold it with the eyes of equity. Law may be looked upon, in some manner, as an assistance for those who have a weak perception of right and wrong, in the same way that optical glasses, are useful for those who are shortsighted, or those whose visual organs are deficient. Equity, in its true and genuine meaning, is the soul and spirit of the law; positive law is construed, and rational law is made by it."

"Institutes of American Law 1882, Vol. 2, s. 3724, para. 4." by John Bouvier

Thank you Christian, much was required of you, because much was given to you and in my opinion, you did an outstanding job passing it on to the children of the living God. I love you bud, have a good nap and I'll see you on the other side.

“ To a mentor, a friend, and one of the greatest men I have ever known. I have gone on to find Equity in Scotland, Canada and Australia and I have argued Cases in Newcastle upon Tyne in England. All based on the generous teaching of one man. He has helped me help so many others and all are grateful for his contribution. He lives on in the work I do. (As Christian taught us) Without the exorbitant fees others charge. I now teach Equity to hundreds of people. All credited to him and his generosity. One of our biggest causes yet goes to court June 9, 2016 and it is in his honor, where we got our first win in the court of Equity and as I promised him I would find the way to bring it in a court of first instance rather than a court of appeal. I have, and we are in British Columbia again where it first occurred in his honor. This one is for you Christian, and all others that follow. Just proof that YES one man CAN Make a difference. Greetings and my condolences to Christian Walters Family & Friends. I am Bro. Gale, Theo. He shared a wealth of information that I'm still studying today. I never spoke to him or meet him physically, but spiritually. He taught trust & Equity in which he gave friendly, in consideration of God so in consideration to him, I study from his due diligence and substantive proof. He is blessed and will be missed. Like I said, I never meet him personally or talked with him on his talkshoe but I'm a magnet to his study.

Christian Walters, I thank you very much for you and your family! Gone but not forgotten, you have left a legacy on how to maneuver in this system of choice. I was blind but now I can see! May God be pleased with you for your contributions to the human family!!!!

“ Hi all, I too thank you for all your wonderful words. CW was a dear friend, father, mentor to me and most of us all in this room. He was soooooo patient with people, he acted in the way that you read about from the Scriptures. All throughout the Word we read about equitable principals, what to do that is right and what happens if you do wrong. We see shining examples laid out by our Messiah in how He acted with those that came against Him. So did CW, he emulated as best he could what he read in the Word. Then, to top it all off, he dedicated his life to learning what we would/could not and spent YEARS of his life bringing that knowledge to us...for free. And to top it all off, when we crack open the Scriptures and start reading, we read about a principal that we THOUGHT Christian taught us, little did we know that it was our Father teaching through Christian. That is what CW did, he taught the Scriptures without the recipient even knowing it.

I have been asked to be the spokesman for CW and to receive any donations that anyone would like to make. Please, if you feel moved to, navigate here: <https://www.gofundme.com/NTTsCW>.

CW spent many hours on the phone with 1000's of people over many years and changed many lives.

He is missed.
